The following information pertains to the crowd control guidelines set forth by the Monmouth University Athletics Department for the Men’s Basketball Program.

1. An Athletics host will meet the visiting team upon their arrival to Boylan Gymnasium to escort them to their locker room.

2. Two or more Monmouth University Police Officers will be stationed in and around Boylan Gymnasium by the start of the contest.

3. At the conclusion of the first half, two Monmouth Athletics Representatives will escort both the “home” and “visiting” teams to their locker rooms. Because both teams must use the same door to exit Boylan Gym the Monmouth University’s team will remain on the Court until the visiting team has left the playing floor.

4. During half-time, a Monmouth University Police Officer will be stationed in the common hallway outside the visitor’s locker room until both teams have returned to the court for the second half.

5. At the conclusion of the game, two Monmouth Athletics Representatives will escort the "home" and “visiting” teams to their respective locker rooms. During this time, a Monmouth University Police Officer will be stationed in the common hallway between the locker rooms.

6. A Monmouth Athletics Representative will escort the referees to their locker room at the conclusion of both the first half and the end of the game.

All spectators will be required to be seated during the playing of the contest. Any disturbances that may occur in the stands will be handled by the Monmouth University Police and the game supervisor.
