Michele Baxter is completing her third year as a member of the Monmouth coaching staff. She is directly responsible for Monmouth's recruiting, scouting and on-floor coaching. Prior to arriving at Monmouth, she served as associate head coach at Tallahassee (Fla.) Community College from 1998-2000. During her two-year stay, the Eagles compiled a 50-19 record and finished second in the state of Florida both seasons. Baxter is a veteran of the basketball camp circuit. In 1999, she was co-founder and site director of the Teresa Baker-Atkinson Basketball Camp. She has also worked the Pat Kennedy Basketball Camp and the Hoop Dream Juco and High School Exposure Camp in Orlando, Florida.

Jim Baxter is the newest addition to the women's basketball coaching staff at Monmouth. Baxter's main responsibilities include recruiting, scouting and on-floor coaching. Prior to arriving at Monmouth, Baxter served as the head coach of the ABA's Memphis Houn' Dawgs, during the 2000-2001 season. Before his stay in the Music City, Baxter spent two seasons at Florida A&M University as an assistant coach with the men's squad. In his first season with the Rattlers, he helped guide the team to the conference tournament title and a trip to the NCAA Tournament after an 0-10 start. Baxter has also had coaching stints at Tallahassee Community College and Florida State University.
