He was a two-time All-South Jersey performer and an all-state selection during his junior year at Lenape High School in Medford, New Jersey. Katz has been teaching tennis for five years in his hometown of Mount Laurel and down the shore in Ocean City. Katz graduated from Monmouth in 2001 with a bachelor’s degree in history.

BEGINNER CAMP

The beginner camp will focus on the fundamentals of the game of tennis. This camp is designed to introduce the game of tennis to those who are not familiar with the sport. The basics of tennis will be stressed through the learning of grips and the proper stroke. Specific drills and games will be used to develop the beginners' forehand, backhand, net play and serve.

INTERMEDIATE CAMP

The intermediate camp will focus on the fundamentals of the game along with some of the more advanced shots in tennis. The forehand, backhand, net play and serve will all be stressed through drills and actual play. Along with the basics of the game, participants will be taught more advanced shots such as slice, drop shot, the lob and how to use topspin. These tools will help to improve campers’ all-around game.

ADVANCED CAMP

The advanced camp will focus on improving the camper’s match play ability. Advanced drills will be introduced to simulate match play and to improve on some of the harder shots in tennis. Emphasis will be placed on racquet strokes and spin production. Campers will get a variety of singles and doubles matches throughout the week.

CAMP PHILOSOPHY

The Monmouth University Tennis Camp is an introduction to the sport of tennis. It is designed to help each participant improve his or her skills while gaining a better understanding of the game of tennis. It will focus on the fundamentals of the game. The schedule will include a balance of individual skills, drills and games. Campers will experience and enjoy a great week of tennis.
