DIRECTOR

KRISSEY TURNER
Monmouth University
Head Women’s Soccer Coach

About to begin her sixth season, Krissy Turner knows a thing or two about success on the soccer field. In five seasons in West Long Branch, she has amassed a 54-33-5 record. Last season, the Hawks logged an 11-5-2 ledger, her fourth consecutive 10-win season and Coach Turner mentored three all-league performers. In 2000, Turner led Monmouth to a 12-6-1 record and the Northeast Conference regular-season championship. In 1999, Turner was named Northeast Conference Coach of the Year and had five players named to the All-NEC team, the most of any school. A 1993 graduate of The College of New Jersey, Turner was a two-year captain and earned All-America honors as a senior, while also garnering All-Northeast Region accolades as a junior and senior. Turner holds an ’A’ license and is very involved in youth soccer through the Olympic Development Program and club teams throughout the state.
