CAMP DIRECTORS

DAVE CALLOWAY
MU Head Basketball Coach
For over 15 years, Dave Calloway and Monmouth Hawks’ basketball have been synonymous with one another. From a player, to assistant coach, to now the head coach of the Hawks, Calloway has been an integral part of the success Monmouth basketball has achieved. In 2001, he earned national recognition as he led MU to its second-ever NCAA Tournament appearance and a Northeast Conference tournament title. For his efforts, Calloway was honored as the NEC Coach of the Year. The 1991 graduate was a four-year starter, an Academic All-America and led the nation in 3-point field goal percentage while finishing as the eighth all-time leading scorer in school history. After his playing days were done, Calloway didn’t stray far from Monmouth, becoming an assistant coach and in 1998 he took over the Hawks’ program as head coach. At the time, Calloway was the youngest coach in Division I basketball.

RON KRAYL
MU Assistant Basketball Coach
Ron Krayl has been an assistant coach at Monmouth University for nearly three decades. His 27-year run at Monmouth is the second-longest stint for an assistant coach at the same school. During his time at Monmouth he has seen the Hawks advance to the NCAA Tournament on three occasions.

MARK CALZONETTI
MU Assistant Basketball Coach
Mark Calzonetti is in his sixth season as an assistant coach at Monmouth University. Calzonetti’s work with big men has paid dividends for the Hawks, who boasted All-Northeast Conference and Northeast Conference Player of the Year Kevin Owens last season. Calzonetti has made NCAA Tournament runs at both Fairfield University and Monmouth.

GEOFF BILLET
MU Assistant Basketball Coach
Geoff Billet is entering his fifth season as an assistant coach at Monmouth. A local legend, Billet was a four-year starter at Rutgers University. He earned Big East All-Rookie honors in 1996 and ended his career ninth on the Knights’ all-time scoring list (1,480) and he was Rutgers’ all-time leading 3-point shooter.
